

Hotel shuttle from the airport

Many hotels offer shuttle service between the hotel and the airport. In hotels' descriptions published on our pages, you can find the information whether it is available at the chosen hotel. If so, it can be booked immediately after the hotel reservation. All you need to do is contact our Infoline or send us an e-mail. On your behalf, we will contact the hotel regarding the service.

Keep In mind, that a hotel reserves the right to refuse transfer option without giving a reason or that the service may be charged additionally.

Shuttle bus

At the major international airports, there is often free bus service (called shuttle bus), transporting passengers from the airport to the hotels located nearby the terminals. This service is available at – among others – JFK airport in New York. Information about the free shuttle buses can be obtained on the airport website or in the information point at the airport.

Information about the transport from the airport to the city centre can be found on our airports' website, where all Polish and majority of worlds airports are described.
